After All, Designing Should Be Fun

Not everyone can appreciate how boring it is to be a designer sometimes. Not every design job is fun. Making web buttons time after time or creating a new logo that is unique is sometimes a challenge just to do, let alone do well. Now there is a new product on the market that can offer designers some true fun and fabulous results too.

Auto FX Software Is Pleased To Release DreamSuite Gel Series

DreamSuite Gel Series is a collection of 5 highly unique artistic depth effects that provide designers with fresh capabilities and tools for adding interest to their work. DreamSuite Gel Series adds translucent and crystal depth to type, graphics, buttons, logos and can even be used on photos to add depth unlike anything you have ever seen.

DreamSuite Gel Series is a feature rich stand-alone application as well as a plug-in for Adobe Photoshop. Exacting control is provided to the designer to interact and customize the visual results they desire to achieve. Customized depth brushes can be used to paint on crystal surfaces or translucent gel on a graphic or photo.
